Special Feature

Nigeria as I saw It

ELIZABETH (BETTY) HARRIS

Editor's Note: Miss Harris, adopted daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Reynolds E. Burch, Newark, N. J., is a Newark State Teachers' College grad, and in her third year teaching at Nassau School, East Orange, N. J.

Under a program sponsored by The Experiment Group in International Living of Putney, Vermont, she was selected to represent New Jersey's young women in carrying out the principles of the Group—that of learning to live together with people, by becoming a part of the people — to this end, she was sent for the summer to Nigeria.

I received the award at the Leaguers, Inc. Annual Cotillion in June and on the 21st set out for the long journey. We sailed on the Arosa Kulm from Canada with some 796 "Experimenters" enroute to India, Japan, England and Africa.

An uneventful but gay sea journey found us in Plymouth, England. After three days housed at the fabulous Lancaster Gate Hotel, I enplaned via BOAC to Kano, Nigeria, thence via West African Airways to Lagos, Nigeria—my destination—where I met my foreign family.

My Host-Family

Imagine my surprise when introductions were made to learn they were ordinary—Mr. and Mrs. Phillips —no impossible foreign name to pronounce, proud parents of three children, ages six, four and two. Both professional photographers; he with studio in the basement of their home, she operating a successful studio a few blocks away. I learned the profession held a promising future, because so many natives "loved having their pictures taken."

The Home

Fashioned of clay and stone filling, much more substantial than many of the thatch roof adobes, was pleasantly furnished American fashion, the living room boasting a beautiful Hi-Fi. The only difference—the kitchen was upstairs. Although there was no bathroom, there was cold water shower, and best of all, toilet facilities inside with proper flushing equipment.

Our Meals

The household was blessed with serrvices of a cook (general trend among the middle class Nigerians). Three meals a day—typical American style breakfast of eggs, strip of bacon and very good coffee, with one variation, which included plantains (banana type food).

Lunch of yams with TUO sauce (rich gravy with tiny green vegetables and peppers), ground nut cakes (from the EFO bean). Dinners, usually MOI-MOI, an extremely hot dish of ground beef, served with rice and cassavas. I'll always bless my host-parents for reducing the temperature of this dish to suit my taste.

Schools

The majority operated by missionaries, with a few native authority. Teachers mostly of secondary training. The equipment very limited and in many instances the building consisted of one huge room, divided by partitions. However, a most encouraging factor, there was little or no need for disciplinary action among the students and there was a great drive within the pupils to acquire an education.

Entertainment

I was greatly impressed with the strong family ties exemplified by the gathering of families, neighbors and friends at one another's homes during the evening hours. There was also the cinema (movie) for leisure moments, opened two to three nights a week, and the YM-YWCA sponsored by the national, manned by trained workers, providing recreational facilities for children and adults. There was also a beach at which the families gathered.

The City

Lagos, the capitol of Nigeria, a very progressive city, and perhaps one of the most beautiful; despite many dirt roads, some attempts have been made to pave. A western-oriental atmosphere prevails with beautiful modern buildings towering beside thatch roofed houses and even huts—and here and there an open market place —colorful to say the least.

The Experiment in International Living offered a realistic program in really getting to know the peoples of the world—getting to know them—to learn all about them—getting to love them. To say the summer was educational, fascinating and enjoyable, is putting it mildly.

The Challenge of Change

Down through the ages man has waged great battles. David and Goliath, the Crusaders, the colonies fight for independence, were all monumental. None have been more memorable and vital than the present epochal legal struggles being wagd by the NAACP legal staff. The battle grounds—the courts of Arkansas, Alabama, Mississippi, Georgia, Virginia, and the United States Supreme Court. The adversary—Intolerance. The Holy Grail—First class citizenship. Among the NAACP legal staff, pictured below: Louis J. Redding, Robert Carter, Oliver Hill, Thurgood Marshall, Spottswood Robinson, Jack Greenberg, James Nabritt, George E. C. Hill. Not pictured: Wiley Brandon, Constance Mobley.

interview with Sullivan Davis TRAINER OF SHOW HORSES

By—SCOTT YOUNG

The scene, Madison Square Garden, the event—The Annual International Horse Show, where horsemanship receives its most severe test and where the art of equestrianship reaches its apex. Mounting tension grips the hugh crowd; the stubbornly contested final event, the last decisive jump, the stilled crowd breaks into a roar—the winner, little pigtailed Mickey McCormick.

Standing near the tanbark, the impenetrable features of Sullivan Davis seem momentarily bathed in satisfaction. Thus, another ribbon for thar great trainer of show horses.

For more than two decades Sullivan Davis of Hanover Farms, New Jersey has had winners at horse shows in Madison Square Garden, Devon and Harrisburg, Pa., Madison, N. J., New York State Fair, and events too numerous to recall.

"I was brought up on a farm in Shelby, Virginia, riding horses at an early age and literally living with them. In 1926 when the opportunity came, through my employer (I was operating a steam shovel) to join him at Hanover Farms, I jumped at the chance. Although it meant long hours, 6 A.M. to 9 P.M., I felt that this was what I really wanted. I liked working with the young fillies and colts, watching them grow, learning the elementary rudiments and helping to guide them to ever better performances.

"No, I don't think horses are the most intelligent of animals. In the first place they are slow to catch on. You have to guage a horse's capacity to learn; it requires a great deal of patience in the initial stages of training a filly or colt, but as they learn more, so does their confidence grow. In this respect they are like humans. Horses in general are extremely sensitive and tempermental and require infinite kindness to win them to you.

"I would say that many of the best horses are from Kentucky, although I've seen foals reared in New Jersey cop many a ribbon. Of course the training of horses has always been our major objective, but a number of horsemen have brought their youngsters to us for training to ride in shows. Luckily we have had a fair amount of success.

"No, I don't think I would choose another vocation. I find my days gainfully full. You see the season runs from March through November, and we are continually on the go and we really don't have an off season, because we are always preparing for the next show season."

The sputniks, the vanguards seem far away for wife Helen and Sullivan at Hanover Farms, for aside from membership at Mt. Zion Baptist Church, Newark and participation as a member in Club 14, one of the outstanding social and civic clubs, their wide blue yonder is—THE TANBARK TRAIL—The Eastern Horse Shows from March through June.

MRS. JENNIE PILGRIM CORDELIA JENNINGS, MAE T. MULDROW,

THREE DAY CONVENTION AND TRADE SHOW, at War Memorial Building, Atlantic City, proved constructive and enlightening. Cordelia Jennings, Jersey City, succeeding the late and lamented Cordelia Greene Johnson, presided for the first time in her capacity as newly elected president. Mae T. Muldrow, Newark, directed the elegant Style Show featuring "Queen With the Forward Look," and was recipient of the beautiful three foot golden trophy as beautician having done most throughout the year for the organization. Jennie Pilgrim, Atlantic City, proved an efficient Convention chairman.

Jobbers and manufacturers throughout the three days displayed and demonstrated their wares. Hair stylists Howard Banks and Henri Judon conducted clinics. President Cordelia Jennings was presented with a monetary purse indicating the esteem the MBA has for her, at the Presidents' Banquet. A medical symposium featuring Dr. Johnathan C. Gibbs, Jr., of Jersey City, MBA medical examiner speaking on "Health Attitudes and Its Effect on the Practicing Beautician," set the pace for the three day convention.

Epsilon Chapter Lambda Kappa Mu

Celebrates Founders Day, with its Annual Youth Forum, subject "The Forward Look of Youth," January 18, 1959 at Friendly Neighborhood House, Newark, Gladys E. Churchman, director and member of the Sorority.

On April 4, 1959 friends will be taken on a trip around the world, in the Chapter's presentation of "Today's World" at Sterington House, Montclair. Mrs. Gwendolyn Williams is program chairman, Mrs. Sally Cooke Young, basileus of Epsilon.

THE BATONS INC.

Well earned title "Newark's Finest," when they recently tossed a surprise party for member Cornell Foster, at Durham's Alcazar, Newark. Mr. Cornell, of the Newark sheriff's office, and former special police officer at the Alcazar was recipient of a purse of several hundred dollars along with best wishes for a speedy recovery from his illness which has hospitalized him several times since April. The Batons, all members of the police force, the sheriff's office and other departments of law and order, also furnished the delectable repast for the party. Thomas Swangin is president.

Eureka Lodge No. 52

Officers and members through Craftco, Inc., holding company for Eureka purchased its own home headquarters-building at N. Willow and Glenridge Avenue, Montclair. Dedicatory services were held with District Deputy Joseph Long, East Orange, officiating. The Grand opening was celebrated with Grand Master William A. Neblett of N. J. PHA Masonic Order and his entire cabinet as guests. Rev. C. Lincoln McGee, pastor Trinity Presbyterian Church, Montclair, guest speaker.

Members and friends were royally entertained at the October complimentary dance at Terrace Ballroom. The Annual Dance will be held by Eureka Craftsmen at Terrace Ballroom, Newark, February 20th. Officers, James A. Robinson, W. M., John Finch, S. W., Gilbert Harris, J. W., Matthew L. Jackson, treasurer, Leonard S. Coleman, secretary, Johnny Jackson, promotional chairman.

Women's League of N. J.

2nd Annual Scholarship Dance will be as exciting and entertaining as last year, due to long range planning. The affair will be held March 23, 1959 at Sterington House, Montclair, Mrs. Florence Bustamante, chairman. President Marian P. Murrill indicated the organization hopes to increase its scholarship awards over the $400.00 given this year.

Citizens Progressive Civic Assn.

A brand new phase of entertainment for the enjoyment of their many guests will be featured December 7th at Continental Ballroom in a "Jamaican Matinee," 7 P.M. to midnight. Featured orchestras Johnny Jackson and the Chico Mendoza Quintet, together with a gala Island show is the scheduled highlights of the evening.

Among committee Alma Ray, Isaac Thomas, Donald Nance, Lucinda Terrell, Dorothy Trigg, Ruth Williams. Charles F. Jenkins, president.

Sally's Chatterings

SALLY COOKE YOUNG

BEAUTICIANS... COSMETOLOGISTS.. FASHION DESIGNERS... TRICHOLOGY SCIENTISTS... PEOPLE...all took a new lease on life insofar as activity.....

HIGH ON THE LIST... our good friend Alma Ray arrived at conclusion.. why not her own shoppe?.... with establishment of beautiful Parisian Shoppe... 216 Newark street.. Newark.. efficient operators Maureen Atkinson.. Lucille Chambers... Alma as you know is charming sister to school teacher Gertie Bailey....

MODERN BEAUTICIANS.. new lease on life.. a 3-day Trade Show-Convention in Atlantic City.. where our luminous-eyed friend Nellie Wahlstrom Flemming (sec'y and gal Friday to Martin Bros... of Peerless & Nu-Nile preparations)was sent to represent... so housed with our friend Nellie at the beautiful Park Plaza Motel... at invite of glamorous Mae Muldrow (LaVogue Beauty Center).. we commentated the fabulous style show "Queen withForward Look".....

AGAINST A BACKDROP OF LIVE MODELS... representing departed pioneers in beauty culture...the show had such stoppers as cute little Derene Lewis.. Hairstylist "Mr"Alvernon of Ecyla Beauty Terrace (Newark)

LIKE MOTHER LIKE DAUGHTER.. so twas not all surprising... to find Mae Muldrow receiving the huge 3 ft. gold trophy as beautician doing most for MBA... and her daughter taking the gorgeous silver trophy for best hair styling.....

PRETTY MARION SANDOZ.... despite accident... takes a new lease on life... and thanks her multitude of so kind friends.. for gifts.. cards.. and personal contacts....

LOVELY GLADYS BRANDON (E. O.)...new lease came with wonderful surprise birthday party tossed by her wonderful husband Wilcox, Dean of Boys at Paterson H. S. .... with gracious neighbor Fernie Whittington.. throwing open doors of her palatial recreation room... many of the Kappa Fraternity bros. and wives.. The James Blairs. the Myron Ross (Rahway).. the Otis Herns... also the Newberrys and daughter.. Catherine Hines.. pretty Helen Wyatt.. the Adam Jordans.. Sgt Thos. Scott.. Gladys' dad and stepmom Mr & Mrs Elmo Johnson (Richamond Va.)enroute to Detroit for vacation... Thelma Wall and your gal Sally(we played hostesses.. since we adore Gladys).....

UP AND COMING YOUNG HUNTSMAN... LaMarr Whigham a-hunting went on his dad's country estate..... bagged a plump pheasant.. which with wild rice... proved sumptuous fare for the family... together with eye-charmer Dottie Massey and your gal Sally.....

DINNER INVITES ALWAYS... give a lift.. particularly when hostess is past mistress in cuisine art..Ethel Terry Bethea.. and guests the brilliant school marm Mrs Pauline Grant (Phila.)attending recent CME Conference.. vivacious Frances Ford... charming ex-show lass.. Mrs Herbert "Dixie"Hissen (Belleville)... beauteous Florence West.....

YOUNGSTERS NEED NO SUCH... lease on life... but up in Orange.. the adorable Lynda Johnson..... Earl and Dorothy Lawrence (Rev & Mrs Lawrence clan). little Camille Travlee.. are the happiest... when Carolyn Travlee made the day gay with trip to N. Y. and rodeo.....

JACK & JILL NO. JERSEY... moms and dads will definitely take on a new lease... says prexy Tommie Fitz-Roy... when they celebrate 10th ann'y with dinner party at Hotel Douglas in February.....

NEW LEASE ON LIFE...for Negro businesses with a group setting up NBC... when luncheon invite comes... it would be wise to accept.. and hear for yourself(cont'd 26')

Sharing the Spotlight

DIAHANN CARROLL, Bronx, N. Y. native, has role of Clara and sings unforgettable "Summertime" in "Porgy & Bess" being filmed on west coast. In New York for a brief visit, took time to appear on WOV's Hall of Fame radio program.

LENA HORNE celebrated her 200th performance in musical Broadway hit "Jamaica". Even more important, she ranks as foremost among women passed the 40 year mark, who attest to the statement of beauty exponents, that women grow more beautiful, more poised with age.

DAKOTA STATON for the first time in wax industry two important stars, of different sex and race, she with George Shearing, have been signed for an important album. Her recording "In the Night"has already sold over 800,000 copies, and is expected to reach the golden million.

ABBEY LINCOLN, Kalamazoo, Michigan native. She does not overwork the blues, but to quote Abbey, "sings imaginatively and freely". Her recording (12-277) "It's Magic", in sultry and sinuous tones, effectively backed by Kenny Durham, Art Farmer, Wynton Kelly, brings her close to the peak of her ambition.

JOHNNY MATTHIS, former west coast high jump champ at San Francisco State. Has produced four best-selling LP albums and such senders as "A Certain Smile", "Chances Are", "It's Not for me to Say." Proclaimed the hottest young singer along the chic night stem circuit; teenagers swoon, oldsters capitulate and juke box crowds overwork the boxes with his numbers.

JAMES STEWART, East Orange, former Philharmonic Glee singer, with the Harry Belafonte singers appeared on the Steve Allen TV show

SPORTS

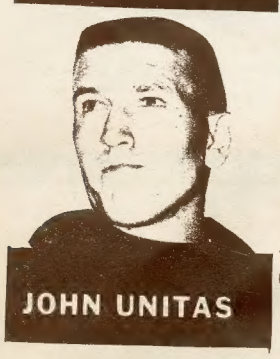

ELGIN BAYLOR

ELGIN BAYLOR, one of the most versatile collegiate basketball stars of Seattle University, is now with the Minneapolis Lakers. He has been terrific in the first games of the season. So impressed have the Minneapolis fans been with his early season form that he is being compared to that great alumnus, George Mikan.

BILL RUSSELL

BILL RUSSELL, now in his second year with the Boston Celtics, had a phenomenally good year as a freshman. Probably the best defensive man in basketball today. Superlatives fail to describe his ability, which still has potentials not yet reached.

JOHN UNITAS

JOHNNY UNITAS, this year's cinderella man of pro-football. He has thrown touchdown passes in 21 consecutive games, and has been the spark plug in the Baltimore Celtics splurge to the top.

EDDIE ARCARO

EDDIE ARCARO. Over a decade one of the leading jockeys. Recently fulfilled long time ambition when he copped the richest meet (Garden State) of the year, which was also the second largest purse in the history of the sport of kings.

OLLIE MATSON

OLLIE MATSON, hard running powerhouse of Chicago Cardinals, reminds the old football fans of the immortal Bronco Nagurski of another era. No back spreads more terror and causes more havoc to the opposition than goodlooking moustachio Ollie.

JIMMY BROWN

JIMMY BROWN, former Syracuse University great, is in his second tremendous year with Cleveland Browns. He leads the league in yards gained from scrimmage. Up until the recent game with New York Giants he had averaged 163 yards per game. Certainly he is a splendid successor to Marion Motley.
